W. H. Layton, Pastor.

Sunday School 9:45
 Preaching 11:00 and 8:30
 Epworth League 7:45
 Thursday prayer meeting 8:00

Revival meetings begin next Sunday. Singing evangelist M. M. Johnson will have charge of the music.

A great crowd last Sunday night at the baccalaureate service. Among the enjoyable features was the music by sixteen high school girls.

The every member canvass for the Centenary will be made next Sunday afternoon. By all pulling together, every one doing his part we are sure to "go over."

During the coming week the great Methodist Episcopal church will raise $113,000,000 for Home and Foreign Missions, and reconstruction war work. This is a program never before undertaken by any church. It calls for loyalty and consecration of every member. This is no time for either "Slackers" or "Traitors." God is leading in this mighty movement and what ought to be done can and will be done.

Keep in mind the revival which is to begin next Sunday. Plan to be present by getting all hindrances out of the way. Make no social engagements but be loyal enough to give the meetings the absolute right of way for the next three or four weeks. All who are willing to help in the music please meet at the church at 8 o'clock Friday night for rehearsal. We will use the Billy Sunday books, Songs for Service.

Here and There

Dr. Burris Jenkins of Kansas City will address the graduating class of the Brookfield high school on Wednesday evening of next week.

Cecil and Harold Fenters and Jerry Stitzel, three lads hiking from Springfield, Ohio, to San Francisco, were in Laclede last Saturday, having been 21 days on the road.

W. L. Yancey, who some time ago sold the Elliott hotel at Brookfield to Elgin Burke and turned it over to the new proprietor this week, has leased and taken charge of a large hotel at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Adams Fauss who has been delivering oil to the merchants of Laclede for the past 25 years or more from his station in Brookfield, sold his big tank and teams last week to Verne Taylor and N. C. Whitney of Marceline, and retired from the services of the Standard Oil Co.

Gazette:—Linn county, not a laggard in most matters, appears to be slow about taking steps for a memorial to the soldiers of the world's war, and come to think of it, there are but two monuments in Linn erected in memory of the soldiers of the Civil war, one in Brookfield and one in Laclede.

Olive Tell in "The Girl and The Judge," with an all star cast, including David Powell, from the play by Clyde Fitch, is the program at the local theatre for Saturday night. This is a complete five reel drama, and is one of Charles Froham's successes in moving pictures.

Memorial Services

Comrades of Phil Kearny Post G. A. R. You are hereby ordered to appear this year in our Memorial service observance at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday, May 25, at 11 a. m. to attend on Divine service.

We cordially invite returned soldiers of other wars to unite with us at these services.

Also, that on Friday, May 30, we observe Decoration Day as has been our custom. In the forenoon of that day we will place flowers on soldiers' graves in country cemeteries, and in the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock sharp, you will report at post room where we will form and march to the Laclede cemetery, and after appropriate services, decorate graves of deceased soldiers.

Since we last met to observe Decoration Day one of our members and a great and good comrade, has fallen, and as we believe has gone to the clear upper skies beneath this Divine illumination. Let us too, who remain, so walk the course of life that at its close we too can devoutly commend our beloved country to His Divine benignity.

Must Wear Discharge Chevron

The attorney general has called attention to a law recently passed, known as the Igoo act, which provides that all soldiers, discharged from the service, must wear the red discharge chevron on their uniform, and imposes a fine of $1,000, or one year imprisonment for violations.

The action of the attorney general is the result of a resolution adopted by the American Legion at its meeting in St. Louis last week to check the misuse of the uniform.

Frequent instances have been cited where men have used the uniform for advertising purposes and for peddling. The discharged soldier is permitted to wear the uniform from the point of demobilization to his home, but immediately after his arrival the red chevron must appear, after which the uniform is considered the same as civilian clothes.

Accused Negro Held

From Brookfield Budget.

"Jim Barnett," the negro porter, who is accused of robbing a companion porter of $43, a watch and chain and forcing him off a moving train near Liberty, Mo., and later at the point of a revolver ordered Deputy Sheriff Mizner off the same train here when he boarded it for the purpose of investigating and locating the robber, was afterwards caught in St. Louis, arrested and brought to Linneus and lodged in jail.

Yesterday in the custody of Sheriff Sportsman, the accused man was given a preliminary hearing before Judge W. J. Carlon, the charge being the carrying of concealed weapons and his attack on Officer Mizner.

He endeavored to prove an alibi but neither Prosecuting Attorney West nor Judge Carlon put much credence in his story and he was bound over to the June term of circuit court, the bail being fixed at $1000.
